Mr. Albert T. Matthews and Supt. Gordon R. Holstun at the 75th anniversary celebration of R. E. Lee Institute in December 1950.

Plans for a new athletic field have been traveling forward rapidly since the donation of thirty-five acres of land by Mr. and Mrs. Albert Matthews. Immediate plans call for a football stadium to be finished for use near the end of the '52 football season; future blueprints are for a gym, auditorium, baseball field, track, and other recreational facilities.

1952 SENIOR CLASS POEM by Josephine Scruggs

If you could gaze into our hearts, You'd find there neatly traced
The things at Lee we love so much;
They cannot be replaced.

It took us time—a long, long time—
To reach senior class this year,
But since we finally made it, now
We face the future without fear.

Our thanks go to the teachers dear, Who're always sweet and kind.
They filled our brains and taught us things,
As they tactfully kept us in line.

And now that we must leave you Our eyes are dimmed with tears
For our happiness, friends, and heartaches,
That we have shared throughout the years.

If memories ever take us back To where we want to be, We'll find our hearts and souls are in The Halls of R. E. Lee.

1952 SENIOR CLASS SONG by Marlene Reese

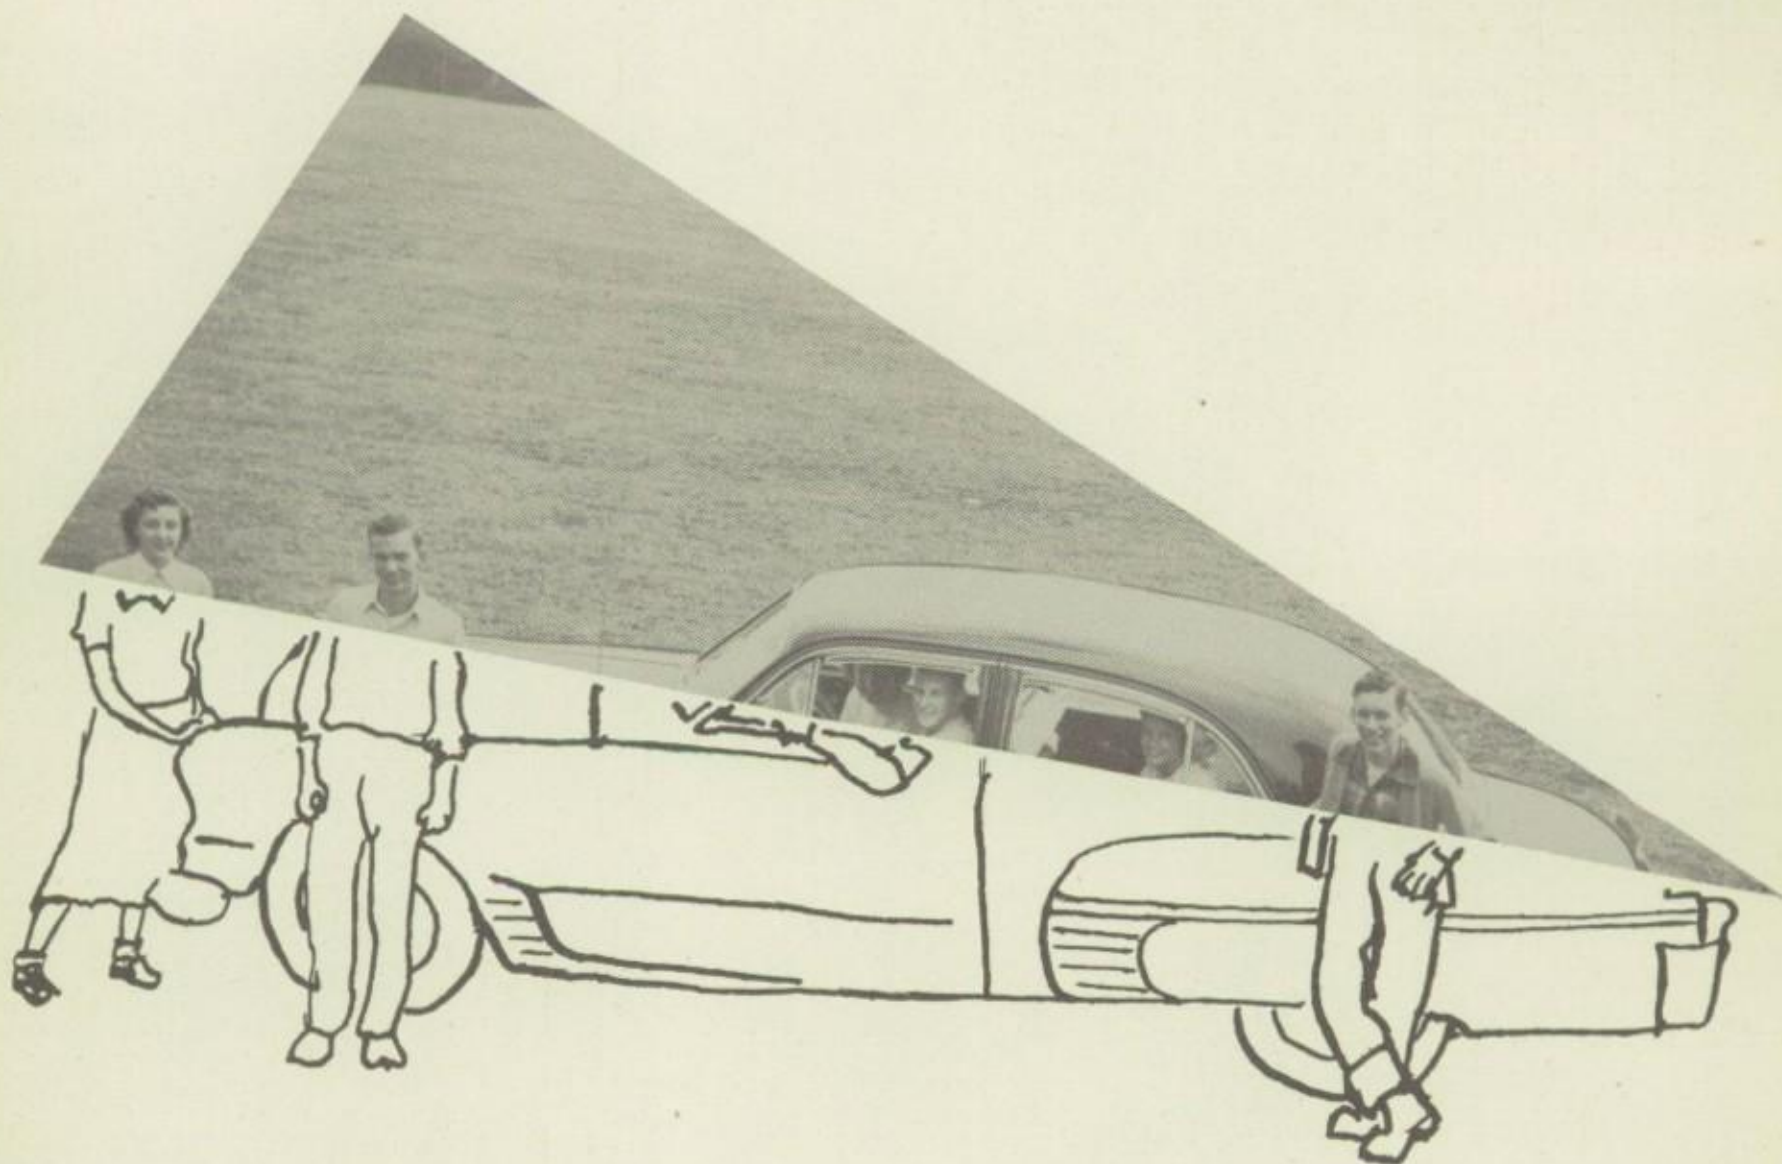

(Tune: "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep You")

Every heart is sad and lonely
On our graduation day,
For we know that everyone
Will go a different way;
We will miss our loving teachers,
They who taught us right from wrong,
And for all the other pupils here
Our love is strong.
We hope that every junior,
Will do his best next year
To add to all our memories
That we hold so dear:
As we sing our Alma Mater
With a sad and tearful eye, Lee, we always will remember thee,
Until we die.

Rebel went to the printers on o: before Friday, Nov. 21. They consisted of all class pages such as the Freshmen, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior pictures; and advertisement pages.

There will be no supplement this year for a number of reasons, two of which are: (1) A good number of students, teachers, and others were dissatisfied with last years' supplement; and (2) the staff is studying a good number of supplements of other school's in an attempt to improve it.

Mr. Maguire stated, "The Rebel Staff would like to express their appreciation for the splendid cooperation shown by students and Faculty when Rebel pictures were made. They feel that this will enable them to have better pictures and therefore help them on the way to putting out a better Rebel for 1952."
